Touch London Volunteer Development Programme

What is Touch London?

- The Rugby Football Union invites you to take part in 'Touch London', a brand new programme bringing the easy-to-play, socially-driven game of touch rugby to workplaces around the capital.
- We are looking to expand our coaching and facilitating workforce and you may have the potential to help! You will be expected to deliver sessions to workplaces around the capital and that we will equip you with the skills to do that.

How can I get involved as a student?

- We would like to offer you the opportunity to join the 'Touch London' Volunteer Development Programme and help be a part of an exciting project to encourage more Londoners to get active through Rugby Union.
- In return for your time and efforts in volunteering through the project, we will:

✓ Provide you with valuable training and transferable skills in Rugby Delivery, Customer Service and Project/Event Management

✓ Training course venue: Twickenham Stadium (Day 1 - 19th Feb / Day 2 – 4th March 2012)

✓ Experience in applying these new skills and knowledge in sports development

✓ RFU Volunteer Recognition Certificates

✓ Official RFU branded kit

✓ The possibility of an RFU written reference

✓ Guidance on how best to present your new skills and knowledge in a CV
