

Course Title/Qualification:	Continuous Referee Development Award - CRDA
To be delivered by:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • By Society Training Officers (STOs) to Society match officials • By Club Referee Developers (CRefDs) to club, school or student referees
Materials available:	Delegate Workbook, Tutor Guide, PowerPoint slides, CD ROM, DVD
Recommended duration:	The delivery of each module lasts between 2 – 3 hours
Cost:	No cost to Society referees. Club, school and student referees - £5 per module
Necessary pre-course qualification:	Some refereeing experience is necessary
Progress route to next qualification:	For Society referees, successful work on this course and refereeing experience can lead to the Extended Referee Development Award - ERDA (Level 3)
Brief description of course structure and learning style/delivery methodology: The Modules are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Laws & Principles of Refereeing 2. Match Preparation & PRDP 3. Understanding the Game 4. Communication & Management 5. Scrum 6. Lineout 7. Maul 8. Tackle/Ruck 9. Advantage 10. Practical Refereeing 11. Assistant Referee 12. Discipline 13. Feedback and the Debrief 1 & 2 14. Advantage 15. Managing captains and coaches 16. Law 10 Case Studies 17. Communication Scripts 18. Refereeing Women's Rugby 19. How to do CRDA differently The course has a modular approach designed to supplement the training programme of Referee Societies. There are opportunities for syndicate and individual work – depending upon the needs of the delegates. Some of the modules can be completed by distance learning; suitability of candidates is determined by the Society.
National contact person: (email address)	Andy Melrose – Training & Education Officer andymelrose@rfu.com	