

Course Title	RFU Refereeing Mini Midi Course
Date course is available from	1 st September 2010
To be delivered by	RFU Referee Trainers
Materials available	Delegate booklet, 'Refereeing Mini Midi' CD Rom and DVD, ACME Thunderer whistle
Duration	One day, although the course could also be delivered over two afternoons/evenings
Cost	£45 per candidate
Pre course work	Delegates will need to have completed the iRB online Laws Test and the iRB Rugby Ready programme
Certification	Delegates will receive a 'Certificate of Attendance'
Course Content	The course covers the following key aspects: a) the qualities of a good referee b) the key requirements of mini midi rugby c) the required behaviours, attitudes, skills and knowledge of an effective mini midi referee d) identification and practise of key skills in a practical situation e) completion of mini midi rules test
Further progression	A Continuous Professional Development (CPD) module is available to those who have completed the Refereeing Mini Midi course. This is a 2 hour session facilitated by an RFU Referee Trainer and costing £5 per person. The module will allow you to build on the knowledge you have gained from the Refereeing Mini Midi course.
For further information	Please contact your local Referee Development Manager .