

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION WOMEN

W5'I km Regulations 2011.12

Aged 11 and 12 on the 1st September 2011

Players and match officials must endeavour to ensure the iRB Law of the Game, modified by the following playing rules, are observed when playing rugby at under 13Girls:

- 1. Object:
 - The object of the game is to score a try (5 points) by placing the ball with a downward pressure on or behind the opponents' goal line. A penalty try will be awarded if a try would probably have been scored but for foul play by the defending team.
 - When a try is scored, the game is restarted by a free pass from the centre of the pitch by the non-scoring team.
- Teams:

Under 13 Girls Transitional Rugby is played between teams of equal numbers of players, containing not more than seven players and not less than six players. Each side can have an agreed number of substitutes. Substituted players can be re-used at any time. Substitutions can only take place when the ball is "dead" or at half time and always with the referee's knowledge.
- 3. Pitch size

The maximum pitch size is

 - 60 metres by 35 metres, plus 5 metres for each ingoal area.
 - Reduced pitch sizes are acceptable provided this is agreed between the officiating referee and coaches, and the smaller pitches do not materially increase the risk of injury to players.
 - Adjacent pitches should be no closer than 5 metres
- 4. Duration
 - a) Fixture (2 Clubs present) : 20 minutes each way, 1 game = 40 minutes
 - b) Fixture (3 Clubs present): 15 minutes each way, 2 games = 60 minutes
 - c) Festival: 7 minutes each way, maximum of 5 games = 70 minutes (total playing time)
 - d) No extra time is permitted in any match except that added for injury time.
 - e) If the try difference rises to more than six coaches should be encouraged to find solutions to challenge the players (eg the winning team might have a "tackle number restriction" – 4 tackles lose possession etc). Where this is not possible/agrees the game must not continue.
- 5. Passing:

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION WOMEN

- The ball can only be passed sideways or backwards through the air, not handed to another player. If the ball is handed to another player or passed or knocked forwards (towards the opponents' goal-line) then a free pass is awarded to the non-offending side, unless advantage occurs to the non-offending side. In order to keep the game flowing, referees should play advantage wherever possible.
- 6. Free Passes:
 - A free pass is used:
 - i) to start the match at the beginning of each half from the centre of the pitch
 - ii) when there has been foul play
 - iii) where the ball has been ripped by an opponent
 - iv) where more than one person from each side joins the contact
 - At a free pass, the opposition must be 7 metres back from the mark. They cannot start moving forward until the ball leaves the hands of the passer. At a free pass, the player must start with the ball in both hands and, when instructed by the referee who will call "PLAY", pass the ball backwards through the air to a member of their team. For safety reasons, no player may run until the pass is made. The player taking the free pass must pass the ball when the referee calls "PLAY".
- 7. The Tackle:
 - Only the ball carrier can be tackled. The ball carrier can run and dodge potential taggers but cannot fend them off using their hands (hand off) or the ball. The ball cannot be pulled out of the ball carrier's hands at any time.
 - (b) A "TACKLE" in the transitional game is deemed to be:

Any contact below the shoulders of the ball carrier which results in a grip, by the opponent of the ball carrier. Where the ball carrier remains on their feet the referee must call "TACKLE" (allow approx 2 secs to establish whether ball carrier held). Where ball carrier is taken to ground, the referee must call "TACKLE"
 - (c) ACTIONS BY THE BALL CARRIER in the tackle:
 - i) The ball carrier if on their feet, and on hearing "tackle" from the referee can pass the ball to a supporting player from their own team, continue to drive or make the ball available to a team mate
 - ii) The ball carrier if taken to ground and on hearing "tackle" from the referee, can pass the ball to a supporting player from their own team, roll or place the ball towards their own team.
 - iii) Once forward momentum has been stopped the ball must be played immediately and away from the contact area. (Free pass to opposition)
 - iv) If the ball carrier drives over their opponents try line and touches the ball down over the try-line, a try should be awarded
 - (d) ACTIONS BY THE TACKLER:
 - i) The tackler must grasp the ball carrier below the shoulders, on the shirt, shorts or around the legs

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION WOMEN

- ii) If the tackle is on the feet the tackler may contest the ball by grabbing it or blocking the pass.
- iii) If the tackle is made to ground, the tackler should get to their feet as soon as possible, and can contest the ball or block the pass and must endeavour to get in an on-side position (between their own try line and the tackled player)
- Actions by the attacking team:
 - i) When the tackle is made the ball carriers team should support from behind.
 - ii) When the tackle is made and the ball carrier is on their feet ONE supporting player, joining from their own side (ie from the direction of their own try line) may assist the ball carrier by ripping the ball or driving forward.
 - iii) When the tackle is made and the ball carrier is on the ground, ONE supporting player may joining from their own side (ie from the direction of their own try line)
 - a) Drive over the ball, taking their immediate opponent away from the ball
 - b) Pick up the ball and pass away from the contact area
 - iv) A supporting player may rip the ball from the ball carrier but must then pass the ball immediately to a team mate.
 - v) Support players must not deliberately stand either side and in close proximity to the ball carrier to prevent defenders from making the next tackle
- Actions by the defending team
 - i) When the tackle is made and the ball carrier remains on their feet, ONE additional defender, joining from their own side (ie from the direction of their own try line), can join the tackle
 - ii) When the tackle is made and the ball carrier goes to ground, ONE additional defender, joining from their own side (ie from the direction of their own try line) can contest the ball.
 - iii) The tackled player represents the off side line and defenders must endeavour to retreat to stay between their own try line and the tackled player until the pass is made (off side)
- When an infringement occurs, a free pass will be awarded. The referee will make a mark for the pass. The opposition will retire quickly to 7 metres from the mark. If the pass is taken so quickly that opponents have no opportunity to retire, they will not be penalised for this. However, they must continue to retire without interfering with the game until they are either 7 metres from the mark or a team mate who was standing 7 metres from the mark has run in front of them. The opposing team must not do anything to delay the free pass or obstruct the passer or receiver. Any infringement by the opposing team results in a second free pass 7 metres in front of the mark for the first free pass. On the second occasion the free pass will not be taken until all opponents have retired 7 metres. No free pass can be taken within 5 metres of the goal line.
- 8. Offside:
 - Offside

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION WOMEN

- i) Occurs at the time of the Tackle where the offside line is the hindmost part of the tackled player. When a Tackle is made, all the other players from the tackler's team must attempt to retire towards their own goal-line until they are behind the hindmost part of the tackled player. If a player, in an offside position, intercepts, prevents or slows down a pass from the tackled player to a team mate, a free pass will be awarded to the non-offending side. A player can, however, run from an onside position to intercept a floated pass before it reaches the intended receiver.
 - ii) Where players are in front of the kicker at the kick off
 - iii) Where players are in front of the kicker in open play and/or within 7 metres of the receiver
- 9. Obstruction:
 - (a) The ball carrier can run and dodge potential tacklers but cannot fend them off using their hands (hand off).
 - b) The tackler can only make contact with the ball carrier below the shoulders.
 - (c) If such contact is made the game must be stopped, the offender spoken to, reminded of the contact rules and a free pass awarded to the non-offending side.
 - (d) If the ball is pulled from the ball carrier's grasp, a free pass is awarded to the ball carrier's side.
- 10. Ball on the Ground:
 - Players play Rugby on their feet, with the ball in hand. If the ball goes to ground, players should be encouraged to pick it up. If they dive to recover the ball they must either get up or play the ball (pass) immediately & be allowed to do so by their opponents.
 - Penalty: free pass to non-offending side and the following rules will apply:
 - i) (a) If the ball was lost forward, a free pass is awarded to the non-offending side unless advantage occurs to the non-offending side.
 - ii) (b) If the ball is passed other than forward and goes to ground play will continue and either side may pick up the ball. If the passed ball rolls into touch a scrum will commence from the touchline to the non-passing side.
- 11. Scrums:
 - (a) The scrum will be made up of one row of three players from each team, ie a prop on either side of the hooker. They will be the nearest 3 players from either side, with the 4th nearest acting as scrum half.
 - (b) At Under 13 girls, the scrum is uncontested by both sides: the team awarded the scrum will throw the ball into the scrum and must be allowed to win it without contest. Opponents cannot push or strike for the ball. If they do, a free pass restart is awarded to the team throwing the ball into the scrum.
 - (c) The players from each team will bind together approximately half a metre apart. Each prop will touch the upper arm of his opponent and then pause before the engagement. The referee will talk the players through the engagement procedure in the sequence Crouch, Touch, Pause and Engage. On the grounds of safety, it is important that the referee manages the engagement of every scrum in this way.

RUGBY FOOTBALL UNION WOMEN

- (e) Front rows must not be allowed to charge at each other. If they start to engage too close together and with their necks and backs bent, they must be stopped and the scrum reformed. Props' body positions must be parallel to the touchline (not boring in). There must be no downward pressure exerted by hands or arms. Shoulders must always be above the level of the hips.
 - (f) If the scrum collapses, the whistle must immediately be blown and the appropriate penalty awarded or the scrum reset. If a player is persistently involved in collapsing or illegal binding they must be replaced. If a player's lack of technique or strength is a danger then they must be replaced. All players, including replacements, should be suitably trained and experienced.
 - (g) Any player at any stage in a scrum who has or causes an opponent to have her shoulders lower than her hip joint must immediately be penalised by awarding a free pass. The object of this rule is to prevent the collapse of a scrum. It is to help the coach to teach good technique and the referee to penalise bad technique. Any player who has her shoulders lower than her hip joint can only move downwards unless she has very great strength. The force through the shoulders should be directed forwards and upwards; all players should remain on their feet, thus preventing a pile up and possible injury.
 - (h) The back line of both teams must remain 5 metres behind the scrum until the ball emerges or the opposing scrum half places his hand on it. Until this happens, their scrum half must remain directly behind his scrum, in the pocket edged by the two props. .
 - (i) If a scrum is awarded within 5 metres of the goal line, the scrum is to be taken at a mark such that the middle line of the scrum is 5 metres from the goal line. In this case the defending backs must stay on or behind the goal line.
 - (k) Referees should pay particular attention to ensure that the scrum half putting the ball into the scrum is not "feeding" her own players: the scrum half must hold the ball with both hands, with its major axis parallel to the ground/the touchline, midway between her knees and ankles. The scrum half must release the ball from outside the tunnel so that it lands midway between the two front rows and beyond the width of the nearer prop's shoulders.
- 12. Prohibited Play:
- In Transitional Rugby, there is total emphasis for the attack; on running with the ball, evasion, running in support of the ball carrier and passing; and for the defence: on running to tackle the ball carrier, prevent them going forward, and to get back into the game. In Transitional Rugby :
 - i) no contact above the shoulder
 - ii) no line-out;
 - iii) no kicking
 - iv) (no hand off/fend off (a hand off being the placing of an open palmed hand by the ball carrier against an opponent's face or body while a fend off is an outstretched arm by the ball carrier towards an opponent to discourage that person making a tag);
 - v) no more than the tackler, tackled player plus one other from each team in contact
